

INT. VILLAGE HUT - CONTINUOUS

Sally and Karno enter. A group of VILLAGERS cower inside.

VILLAGER

What are you doing out there? The Creature will be out any moment.

SALLY

That's why I'm here. I'm gonna slay the bird.

KARNO

No, you can't do that!

VILLAGER

No mortal weapons can slay it. It's gobbled up everything: swords, axes, pitchforks, laser cannons. It's no ordinary bird.

SALLY

What is it?

VILLAGER

A Demon Turkey.
One year ago, King Karno dumped chemicals into the sewage and it radiated all our livestock. Now, we live in fear! Those animals remember when we used to eat them and they're not happy about it.

Sally shoots Karno a glare.

IN THE DISTANCE

We hear STOMPING.

Karno lifts up his shirt. His belly rolls reverberate like the water cup in "Jurassic Park".

VILLAGER (CONT'D)

It's coming!

SALLY

And I'm going!

Sally charges out the hut with bravado.

KARNO

Do you have a phone?

EXT. VILLAGE

The Demon Turkey LANDS in the center of the village, roaring at Sally. She brandishes a BROADSWORD, soaking it in gasoline, then uses her blue torch to light it aflame.

SALLY

You know what today is, Gobbler?
Thanksgiving.

She LEAPS UP in the air and slashes down at the Turkey. It swoops around her swing and HEADBUTTS Sally, hurling her against a wall. Sally gets back up and somersaults up the Turkey's back, riding it like a horse.

The Turkey spins around, trying to knock Sally off, to no avail. Sally takes her sword and STABS the Turkey.

PFWOOMF! The sword bounces off the Turkey's hide. A low HISS and the blade MELTS into acid.

SALLY (CONT'D)

No! I pulled that sword from a rock! You meanie-pants!

INT. VILLAGE HUT

Dial tone. Karno waits patiently.

NEVILLE (V.O.)

(on the other end)
Hello?

KARNO

Neville, is that you?!

INT. THRONE ROOM

NEVILLE

Oh, Your Majesty! You're still alive!

In the background, Mocka is being restrained by his BODYGUARDS while a TAILOR measures him for new clothes.

MOCKA

(squirming)
Karno? He's not dead?! Guards, go destroy him!
